PEACE ENVOYS RELEGATE HARDEST PROBLEMS TO THE END OF THE CONFERENCE.

CRISIS RAPIDLY APPROACHES

SUCCESS OR FAILURE OF THE NEGOTIATIONS VERY SOON TO BE DETERMINED.

Portsmouth, N. H., Aug. 16.—The crisis in the peace negotiations, upon which the eyes of the world are fastened, is approaching rapidly and the end of this week or the first of next at the latest should witness the deadlock and the end, if the conference is to go to pieces. Two more of the twelve articles, Numbers four and six, were disposed of Tuesday. Article four consists of mutual pledges to observe the integrity of China and the policy of the "open door" for the commerce of all nations, and Article six covers the surrender of the Russian leases to the Liaotung peninsula, Port Arthur, Dainy and the Blonde and Elliott islands. To Article four both parties gave ready assent and the official statement of the adoption of that article took care to state that it was agreed to "unanimously." Article five, the consideration of which was postponed until later, provides for the cession of the island of Sakhalin. Discussion appearing useless at this stage on account of the firm negative given in the Russian reply, it was decided upon the motion of the Japanese to defer its discussion, thus revealing the Japanese intention of postponing to the end the life and death struggle.

This is the usual procedure followed in diplomatic negotiations, enabling the negotiators to come to an accord upon all possible points before tackling the crucial issues and the fact that the Russians acquiesced in the proposition shows that they, too, are as careful and as anxious as are the Japanese that the world should not accuse them of being responsible for precipitating the break, if break there is to be, and wrecking the conference. This in itself is a hopeful sign. Besides, by postponing the burning questions to the end, the psychological moment for bargain and compromise arrives. Then hurriedly the last trump cards are played and the game is done. And there is growing hope of compromise. To the closest observers the final solution begins to crystallize quite naturally—the Russians yielding.

The Cession of Sakhalin,

Japan foregoing "the cost of the war," but taking compensation in the money to be refunded to Japan by China on account of the transfer of the Chinese Eastern railroad, which Russia contends belongs to a private corporation, therefore unconfiscable by Japan, the Russian government property in Port Arthur and Dainy and remuneration for the maintenance of 100,000 Russian prisoners in Japan.

According to the Russian view, Japan has already secured all and more than she dreamed of claiming before the war. To insist upon a foe who has still 500,000 men confronting her in the field footing the bill for the cost of the war as the price of peace would, the Russians say, change the character of the military struggle henceforth from one for certain principles to one for the exaction of "blood money." All questions relating to Korea and Manchuria except the cession of the Chinese Eastern railroad and the main Siberian line running through Northern Manchuria from the station "Manchuria," on the Amur, via Harbin to Vladivostok, are settled in the five articles already adopted. Some confusion has arisen about those articles and the following resume can be accepted as absolutely accurate:

First—Recognition of Japan's "preponderating influence" in Korea, etc. Second—Mutual obligation to evacuate Manchuria, Russia to retrocede to China all special privileges, etc. Third—Japanese obligation to restore the sovereignty and administration of China in Manchuria. Fourth—Mutual obligations to respect the territorial and administrative integrity of China and the principle of the "open door."

Sixth—The surrender of the Russian leases to the Liaotung peninsula, including Port Arthur, Dainy and the Blonde and Elliott islands.

The remaining seven articles (not given in numerical order) are:

Objected to by Russia.

The cession of Sakhalin; reimbursement for the cost of the war; the cession to China of the Chinese Eastern railroad; the article relating to that portion of the main line of the Siberian railroad running through Northern Manchuria, which includes provision for policing of the road by China and not by Russia; fishing rights on the Siberian coast north of Vladivostok to the Bering sea, the article affecting Russia's naval power in the far East and that providing for the surrender of the Russian warships interned in far Eastern waters. To all of these Russia has more or less objection.

Besides indemnity and Sakhalin, M. Witte will strenuously oppose the surrender of the interned warships, the limitation upon Russia's naval power and the cession of the Chinese Eastern railroad to China. The article relating to the Chinese Eastern railroad is number seven and will come up at the session Wednesday. The Russians are prepared with documentary evidence if the article is not passed over to show that the railroad is a private corporation owned by the Russo-Chinese bank. M. Pokotloff, one of the Russian delegates, was manager of the bank in St. Petersburg until a few months ago, when he was sent to Peking as minister, upon the death of Mr. Lessar.

Fight Will Be Interesting.

Mr. Berger, the attorney of the bank, is also here and the fight upon this article is sure to prove extremely interesting and possibly prolonged, as Russia will contest the Japanese contention that the Russian government is the real owner of the railroad and that it was built for purely strategic purposes.

The only far in the sessions of the conference Tuesday occurred at the morning session, when a rather spirited controversy occurred over the question of the publicity of the proceedings. Each side manifested a disposition to charge the other with being responsible for the "leaks" and it was settled by renewed pledges to observe the strictest secrecy henceforth regarding the proceedings. As a result the correspondents Tuesday night experienced additional difficulty in securing information.

The discussion on Sakhalin went far enough to demonstrate the determined opposition of Russia to its cession and there had been not the slightest sign of yielding when the agreement was reached to reserve a decision on the article until later. Competent Japanese authorities, however, still insist that Japan will never abandon this point. They declare, however, that Baron Komura and Mr. Takahira will go to the extreme limit to secure the bases of the "treaty of Washington." They do not pretend to say that they are assured the treaty will be signed. They do not even say that they are hopeful. Their position may thus be unofficially stated:

Japan Will Not Yield.

"Japan's plenipotentiaries will continue the negotiations as far as possible without yielding on those points which Japan has long ago decided are essential demands. If after this earnest it is impossible to reach an agreement with M. Witte and Baron Rosen, Japan will announce that further negotiations are useless and her plenipotentiaries will regretfully take leave of the president, and the Japanese government will immediately turn her attention to the campaign in Manchuria. It has been made plain by Japan that both sides can conduct the negotiations with a freer hand, and make concessions on certain points with less danger of embarrassment by public opinion at home if the negotiations are kept secret."

"The president has not only ceased all efforts in the direction of an armistice, but it is the feeling among officials of the Washington government that perhaps in the case of the negotiations are agreed upon, the actual drafting of the treaty may be hastened if there is no truce. Japan long ago let it be known that she would not consent to an armistice until the success of the negotiations had been assured by an agreement upon the framework of the treaty and now it appears unlikely that she will consent to a truce even then unless Russia asks for it, which Japan does not expect."

RECEIVED WITH SURPRISE.

News of Action Taken by Envoys Made Public in Russia.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 16.—The press dispatches announcing the decision of the plenipotentiaries at Portsmouth to waive for the present consideration of the article relating to Sakhalin island and to proceed with the discussion of points that Russia is willing to accept as a basis of negotiations were received here with some surprise and even relief by the Russian public generally, which had been forewarned that Tuesday's session might end the conference. M. Witte is known to consider a rupture more than possible. The Russian correspondents on Monday night privately notified their papers that negotiations might be expected to end on the morrow, when the Russian and Japanese plenipotentiaries locked horns on the question of the cession of Sakhalin. The boisterous also was apprehensive and Russian imperial forces, which were weak, Tuesday fell off an eighth.

The postponement of the discussion of one of the two points on which the fate of the conference hangs is considered a good sign, but not a sure one, and the general opinion remains one of doubt, though pessimism is losing ground as the days pass without a rupture between the envoys. SITUATION IMPROVES

PROGRESS OF YELLOW FEVER AT NEW ORLEANS BELIEVED TO HAVE BEEN CHECKED.

TOURS INFECTED DISTRICTS

DR. GUITERAS, NOTED CUBAN EXPERT, VISITS STRICKEN SECTION OF THE CITY.

New Orleans, Aug. 16.—The official yellow fever report up to 6 p. m. Tuesday is as follows:

New cases, 62; total to date, 1,080; deaths, 6, total, 172; new sub-foci, 19; total to date, 228; number of cases under treatment, 384.

Tuesday's record shows that there is beginning to be an improvement in the situation. With only sixty-two new cases found by the present system, there is every reason to believe that the progress of the disease has been checked and its eradication is only a question of a few weeks. Of the six deaths Tuesday only one was an Italian. Among the others was J. O. Despit, a prominent young lawyer, and Pierre Aldal, a well known musician, at one time leader of the French opera orchestra. Aldal, however, was in destitute circumstances and was buried by the city. He was found in a dying condition. Only a third of the new cases Tuesday are Italians.

The state board of health announces that in the state outside of New Orleans there have been to date 129 cases and 24 deaths.

Thirty-five tons of sulphur, donated to the marine hospital service Tuesday, will be distributed among the poorer class of the population for a general fumigation of premises.

The arrival of Dr. John Guiteras, the Cuban yellow fever expert, and his tour of the seat of worst infection, was the most interesting feature of the yellow fever situation Tuesday. Dr. Guiteras left Havana to make an inspection of the gulf cities in connection with the Cuban quarantine and to offer his assistance in the campaign in progress here.

On his arrival, Dr. Guiteras went immediately to the offices of the marine hospital service for an interview with Surgeon White. Later in the day Dr. Guiteras joined Doctors Corpal and Richardson of the marine hospital service staff for a tour of the old French market where the fever first appeared and where it has raged most fiercely. He went at first to the emergency hospital. Dr. Guiteras was favorably impressed with the equipment of the hospital and praised the excellence of its management.

Dr. Guiteras was thoroughly pleased with the results of his inspection and expects to see a universal acceptance of the mosquito theory at the end of the present campaign.

MODIFIES HIS ORDER.

President Roosevelt Restores Utah Lands to Entry.

Washington, Aug. 16.—The president has modified his proclamation of Aug. 5, withdrawing from entry certain lands in the Uintah Indian reservation and has restored about 85,000 acres.

The lands were set apart to conserve and protect the water supply of a tract of over 200,000 acres of land. Complaint being made that the lands were not needed for that purpose an investigation was made and the report thereon upheld the justice of the complaint and upon request of the secretary of agriculture the president released the lands from reservation.

KILLS NINE ITALIANS

EXPLOSION OF DYNAMITE IN A WEST VIRGINIA CONSTRUCTION CAMP.

Elkins, W. Va., Aug. 16.—Nine Italians were blown to shreds and their hut reduced to atoms by a dynamite explosion at the construction camp of Dunlevy Bros., about six miles from Durbin, between 1 and 2 o'clock a. m. This is thought to be only another chapter in a feud between a gang of desperadoes and Italians. The crime was not discovered until daylight, when members of the camp ran across the gruesome spectacle of parts of the bodies of the foreigners hanging to the trees. The deed was premeditated but there is no trace of its perpetrators.

NO ONE HELD TO BLAME.

No Further Action to Be Taken in the Cohen Case.

Washington, Aug. 16.—Secretary Bonaparte, after a thorough examination of the records in the case of Raphael Cohen, the coal passer on the converted cruiser Yankee, whose death resulted from injuries received in a boxing contest held on an American warship in Dominican waters on July 9, said that from an investigation of the records he saw nothing wrongful, although of course it was extremely deplorable that Cohen should have lost his life. He added that boxing and athletics generally are encouraged in the service, because of their beneficial influence on the health of the men, as well as to relieve the tedium of a sailor's life. The court found that neither Cohen's adversary nor any other person was in any wise culpable and recommended that no further action be taken.

Charles King to Be Hanged.

Ottawa, Ont., Aug. 16.—Charles King, an American, will be hanged at Edmonton on Aug. 31. King was convicted of murdering an English prospector named Hayward at Lesser Slave lake, N. W. T., last fall. He was tried twice. The Dominion government had the case under review and Tuesday decided not to interfere. King came from one of the Dakotas.

POLITICIANS and state drainage are going hand in hand in Northern Minnesota these days.

EMMET MARK is spoken of as a candidate for the senate from the Princeton district. The gentleman has served three terms as a member of the lower house to the evident satisfaction of his constituents.

The grand lodge of Eagles in session at Denver was presented with a ton of pure snow, the same being obtained at an elevation of 11,600 feet within 6 miles of that city. Just what use the Eagles will put this unique gift to is not stated, but possibly they expect to divide it up among their number and take it home in refrigerators as souvenirs.

The plan of having all executions occur at the state prison seems to be gaining considerable favor these days. Such a bill has been before the legislature in times gone by, but sufficient strength has always been found by the Washington county members to kill the measure. The plan is the proper one, however, and in time will become law.

The county system of rural free delivery will be established in Stearns county in September and twenty-five new routes will be put in operation in addition to the ones already established. This will give practically every city or village in the county a rural route from its postoffice and will give the people there mail service unexcelled by any county in the state.

The editor of the Shevlin Advocate was robbed of $24 in cash on Sunday night, the money being taken from his pocket while asleep. That must be a great country up in Clearwater county where a newspaper man can get together that much money at one time and then drop calmly off to sleep. The average newspaper man never goes to sleep with that amount of money in the house.

The school boy who makes up his mind that he isn't going to school any more because he is tired of it should look into the future, and the following, gleaned from an exchange, if read and digested, may help him decide that the time spent in school work is worth more to him than he has imagined. The average educated man gets a salary of $1,000 a year. He works forty years making a total of $40,000 in a lifetime. The average day laborer gets $1.50 a day, 300 days in a year or $450 per year. In 44 years he earns $18,000. The difference $22,000 equals the education. To acquire this earning capacity it takes twelve years at 180 days each, or 2,160 days. Divide $22,000 the value of the education, by 2,160, the number of days required in getting it, we find that each day at school is worth more than $10 to the school goers.

Woods, his son, who was in the east managing the Cosgrove concert attractions arrived yesterday. Mr. Cosgrove will most likely arrive today and also B. G. Segog, of Duluth. Mr. Woods is a 32nd degree Mason and has many friends throughout the state who hope for his speedy recovery.

J. F. McGinnis returned last night from a trip through North Dakota to Minot and on up into Canada. He reports towns in that portion of the country as booming and everything as prosperous. He thinks Minot a wonderful little business center. Harvesting, he says, is more advanced at Portal, on the Canadian line than around here, but the Red River Valley is in bad shape because of the last storm, everything being covered with water, and the grain is all ready to harvest now. He doubts if machines can go on the land for 10 days.

At the request of a number of our townsmen, Attorney A. T. Larson, of Brainerd, came up Saturday and on Sunday rendered two discourses in Gilbert hall. In the morning he spoke in the Swedish language and in the evening his talk was in English, when he spoke on "The Goodness of God." His talks were both very highly instructive and interesting and large audiences greeted him morning and evening. He is an able speaker and all who heard him enjoyed themselves greatly.—Pine River Sentinel.

ODESSA RIOT INCIDENT

How a Jewish Child Startled Some Cossacks.

HE CARRIED A CONCEALED BOMB

Daring Boy Had Been Hired by a Wealthy Man to Throw It—Hotly Resented Being Called a Pickpocket, Told His Captors They Were All Thieves—Bomb Laboratory Discovered.

One of the incidents during the recent days of terror and rioting at Odessa, in Russia, is thus described by a correspondent of the Westminster Gazette:

"Run home, little boy, run away. What dost thou do here? There is too much trouble and danger in the town for little boys to be out. Hast thou a little mother? Yes; then go home to her. She will be frightened if thou art out so late." It was in Odessa, a few weeks ago, two days after the great fire in the harbor. In the center of the town, on the Sobor place, the white, gilt domed cathedral now stood in the midst of a military encampment. Long rows of Cossacks and dragoon horses were tethered on two sides, while the third, the fountain, where the blessing of the waters takes place every year, was being used by the soldiers to water their cattle. The cavalymen had pitched their tents under the trees lining the sidewalks. The infantry were quartered in the surrounding courts. There were soldiers off duty chatting before the court doors, soldiers patrolling the streets, while the sentinels kept a sharp lookout on the roofs for possible bomb throwers. The town was nervous and excited, for the Russian battleship Potemkin that afternoon, after defying the admiral and his squadron, had returned to the harbor with a second mutilated ship. Four shells had been thrown into the town the evening before, and between a mutinied, threatening man-of-war outside the town and a band of bomb throwing anarchists within no one knew what the morrow would bring forth.

The boy addressed, a stunted Jewish child of ten or eleven, shook his head and tried to pass the little group of soldiers who had stopped him.

"Perhaps he is hungry," said a good natured Cossack. "Wouldst thou like some bread and a gherkin, little boy?" The lad made a gesture of dissent. "He won't touch our food," laughed another. "But go home, little Jew. A bomb might come, or a shell from the ships, and then thy people would never see thee again."

"I am not afraid," said the child sullenly. "I want to see the horses." "Well, they are worth looking at," said a dragoon. "But come in the morning; now the square is cleared, and no one may pass. Besides, it is quite dark. Run away home, little boy. It is 10 o'clock—time to sleep." "What is he holding under his shirt?" said an infantry soldier, looking over the boy's shoulder. "Hast thou got a mouse or bird under thy shirt? Show it to us." "No, no!" said the boy, turning pale and frightened looking. "Let me go home. I have nothing." "Stop!" Half a dozen hands gripped him tight. "Take care, Micha. God knows what it may be. So, gently, out of his hand."

A small, dark object was carefully extracted from the boy's grasp. The soldiers looked first at it and then at each other in silence. "The little villain!" says a Cossack at last. "Hold him fast till the officer comes." The report is given. "That child! Who gave it thee to throw? Dost thou know what it is?" Then, as no answer is given, "Keep hold of him, two of you, and bring him with me to the station."

The police inspector eyed the culprit grimly in silence, and then sent for another official. "Is he a pickpocket?" "I think not, though it is impossible to know all the boys." "He may be in training," suggested the superior. "I am not," lying from the boy. "You are thieves, living in plenty when the poor are starving. We are all equal; you will soon feel it. Oh, you do not know how rich and great a man gave me the bomb! Yes, one in a rich house on the boulevard!" shrieked the child, exasperated by the smile on the three men's faces. "And what did he give thee to throw it," says the inspector scornfully. "Five coopecks, little liar?" "No; ten rubles. Soon there will be money for all. We shall take all yours; we are all equal." "Mine will not make you rich, little fool," said the Cossack, laughing. "Do you think there is much behind it?"—this in a low tone to the inspector. "A great deal," grimly. "We were getting on the track, but I had to be sure. Now, boy, tell me the name of thy great man, or thirty lashes!" "He will give in at the first touch," to the officer. "They always do; these children cannot bear pain."

The inspector was right. Next day the town woke up to find some surprising arrests had been made and a bomb laboratory discovered and destroyed. The next evening a disconsolate, crestfallen little boy made his way home to his anxious parents.

American Army's Best Shot a Negro. All records for marksmanship in the United States army were recently broken at Fort Sheridan by Corporal Joseph C. Smith, colored, says a Chicago dispatch. In rapid fire shooting he made a score of 97 out of a possible 100.

HUNGER RIOTS OCCUR

FAMINE CONDITIONS IN ANDALUSIA, SPAIN, ARE BECOMING MORE SERIOUS.

NO AID FROM GOVERNMENT

THOUSANDS OF WORKMEN ARE ROAMING THE COUNTRY ARMED WITH RIFLES.

London, Aug. 16.—The Daily Mail's dispatches with regard to the famine conditions in Andalusia, Spain, state that the Spanish government has entirely failed to give relief and that, as money grants are absolutely inadequate to meet the necessities, the resources are completely exhausted. Hunger riots are of daily occurrence and are becoming more and more serious. Theft and pillage are common, and it is impossible to maintain order. Reinforcements of the civil guard are needed in every town and village. Not a drop of rain has fallen in that district since March, and the summer and autumn crops will be ruined unless rain falls soon or the government realizes the situation and takes steps to remedy the conditions.

It is feared that the peasantry will take the law in their own hands and even now signs of open revolt are plentiful and exasperation at the government's inaction is becoming daily more pronounced.

WORKMEN ARMED WITH RIFLES.

Five Thousand of Them Roaming About in Andalusia.

Seville, Spain, Aug. 16.—A commission of landed proprietors and farmers have laid before the authorities the conditions prevailing in and about Osuna in Andalusia. They estimate that there are 5,000 workmen armed with rifles roaming about the country. The municipal authorities disclaim responsibility for this condition of affairs. The jails are crowded with persons who have committed no offense but who have given themselves up to the police on the pretense of having committed a crime in order to procure shelter and food. The charitable societies have exhausted their resources and government action is anxiously awaited.

Children Live on Fir Cones.

Cadiz, Aug. 16.—The famine which commenced last March has now reached the point of actual starvation throughout the fertile valley of Andalusia. The workmen are unable to secure food. They are too weak to work and are becoming desperate. The children are living on fir cones and the fruit of the wild cactus.

BELIEVED TO BE MR. DOVE.

George L. Marsh Arrested in Connection With Chicago Crime.

Brockton, Mass., Aug. 16.—George L. Marsh was arrested at his home here Tuesday at the request of the Chicago police in connection with the murder of William Bate, the young chauffeur, whose dead body was found leaning over the steering gear of an automobile at a lonely spot in the road two and one-half miles beyond Lemont at daylight on the morning of Nov. 19, 1904.

Marsh is supposed to be the mysterious "Mr. Dove" who hired an auto and had Bate as chauffeur.

Marsh is about twenty-four years old. His home is in this city. For some time past he has been driving a peddler's cart.

Marsh will oppose extradition and will attempt to establish an alibi.

WALTER S. PULLMAN DEAD.

Succumbs to Injuries Sustained in Runaway Accident.

Redwood City, Cal., Aug. 16.—Walter Sanger Pullman, who was injured in a runaway accident last Sunday, died Tuesday night at his home in Belmont. An investigation disclosed that his skull was fractured.

Minneapolis Woman a Suicide.

Minneapolis, Aug. 16.—Laboring under the delusion that some one was seeking her life and was about to kill her, Mrs. Emily Hortenbach, fifty-one years old, wife of Robert E. Hortenbach, proprietor of a creamery, took a fatal potion of carbolic acid about noon Tuesday at her home and died about 7 p. m.

King Edward in Austria.

CREATE SOME

Crowd of Sympathizers of the Striking Operators Gather
at Depot Last Night

MAKE ALL KINDS OF THREATS

Against the Night Operator Who Went to Work a Few Days
Ago in This City

There were indications for a time at the Northern Pacific depot last night that there would be some real violence in connection with the operators' strike on the Northern Pacific. A few nights ago a young man was brought here by the company and put to work on the night trick. Last night a large number of young men, some forty it is said, gathered at the depot and signified that they were sympathizers of the striking operators. They threatened all kinds of violence unless the young man would quit his post, but he stuck to the keys all night. Two policemen were called and they were quieted.

Supt. Blanchard was in the city this morning and he stated that the company had taken measures to prevent a recurrence of last night's episode. He stated that he thought Brainerd would be the last place where there would be any trouble as the people here are generally credited with being law abiding and honorable citizens. He believes that those who were mixed in the deal were a lot of young men who hardly realized what they were doing.

Mr. Blanchard stated that so far as the Superior division is concerned everything is running along very smoothly. They are getting all the men they need to take the places of the men who have gone out.

HAPPY WOMEN.

Plenty of Them In Brainerd, And Good Reason For It.

Wouldn't any woman be happy, after years of backache suffering, days of misery, nights of unrest, the distress of urinary troubles, she finds relief and cure? No reason why any Brainerd reader should suffer in the face of evidence like this:

Mrs. J. H. Zellers, of 915 Main St., Brainerd, Minn., says: "I believe that after what Doan's Kidney Pills did for me they will help anyone similarly troubled. Before using them I suffered for six months from my kidneys. There was a miserable feeling of pressure over those organs and the secretions were scanty. Besides this there was a heavy pain across the small of my back. A box of Doan's Kidney Pills was gotten at a drug store and I took them with the result that they acted like a charm. I can truthfully say that I have not had a symptom since."

On October 28, 1904, six years after giving the above statement, Mrs. Zellers says: "I am just as glad to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills today as I was in 1898. I have not had an attack of kidney trouble since I used Doan's Kidney Pills, and must give them credit for a permanent cure."

TO INVESTIGATE DAMS

Commission Appointed to Look Into Northern Minnesota Reservoir Question Will Get Busy

The investigation of the workings of the government dams on the upper Mississippi with a view to preventing such floods as have occurred recently in counties adjoining the dams, has commenced in St. Paul and Maj. H. M. Chittenden of Sioux City, Iowa, Maj. Chas. L. Potter of Duluth and Capt. W. V. Judson of Milwaukee, Wis., United States engineers appointed by the secretary of war to make the investigation, met and organized in St. Paul.

The party has gone to the reservoirs at Lake Winnibigoshish, Leech Lake, Pokegama Falls, Pine River and Sandy Lake to investigate conditions. The party will be gone a week and will give a public hearing Sept. 12 to all persons interested in the operation of the dams. "The board will consider two questions in its investigation," said Maj. Chittenden. "One is the use of the surplus water for power and the other is the use of the reservoirs in protecting persons and property along the Mississippi river. We are going to make a thorough investigation at the reservoirs."

Nervous Headache

The Cause of Much Suffering to Women is Permanently Cured When the System is Built up by

DR. A. W. CHASE'S NERVE PILLS.

When the head aches hard and throbs; when the neck and eyes grow stiff, the face flushes or grows deadly white; when any excitement or over effort brings on an attack of nervous headache so severe that it leaves you weak, tremulous, shaky and utterly worthless for days, it is a certain indication that the nervous system is shattered—that resistive power is gone—that you need a medicine that will rebuild and re-supply the lost nerve force, that will so strengthen you that you can resist and overcome these terrible seizures. Such a medicine is Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills, a medicine that does not relieve but goes to the root of the trouble and positively cures.

Mrs. John Fall of Fourth St., Toronto, O., Says:

"I like Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills because they cured my nervous sick headaches—these headaches used to play me out and leave me weak and nervous, the pain being so severe. My eyes used to get stiff and sore during the attack and the neck so stiff I could hardly turn it. The Nerve Pills, however, proved to be just what I needed and cured the attacks in a hurry. As a result I feel steady in nerves, physically strong and vigorous and in every way sound and well. This makes me feel I can't speak too highly of the medicine." 50 cents a box at dealers, or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y. Portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M. D., on every package.

MUSIC AND DRAMA.

"UNCLE JOSH PERKINS" TONIGHT.

Tonight the attraction at the Brainerd opera house will be "Uncle Josh Perkins," one of the successful rural comedy dramas that has been produced in past years. It serves a commendable purpose, for it teaches in a most entertaining way and in a thoroughly up to date manner the truth of the old saying, that "love will find a way." The chief interest in the piece centers in the love of Uncle Josh for his young daughter Nan. The cast of "Uncle Josh Perkins" has been selected carefully. The piece is well staged, and equipped with scenery. Prices 75, 50 and 25c.

The following is what the Duluth Herald says of Uncle Josh:

"Uncle Josh Perkins," presented at the Lyceum last night, immensely pleased the audience, which was rather a large one. The story deals with the loss and restoration of a child to her parents, of her adventures in the city of New York with a scheming lawyer, after her money, and of her rescue by Uncle Josh, a spry old farmer who will not permit himself to be buncoed. The story is an old one, but is treated in a new way in "Uncle Josh Perkins." Uncle Josh finally learns that the girl he has rescued is his daughter, and all ends happily.

"The part of Josh is taken by Frank Pond with a deal of credit to himself. During the course of the play he introduced a few songs that were great hits. Other taking vaudeville features were offered, and all of them were well received by the audience. Joe Rith earned a lot of hissing as the scheming lawyer; Lulo Berlin, Edna Ransom and Kate Rith all came in for a share of the applause."

"THE CHAPERON'S."

Marshall P. Wilder, the well known humorist, makes his boast that he is the best audience any play can have. He is also an inveterate theatregoer and goes to see all classes of performances. He was never known to say the play was bad. He goes on the principle of the Kentucky Colonel who said: "All whiskey is good, but some is better than others." To Mr. Wilder all plays are good, and yet for future reference he keeps a private tab on everything that he goes to see in a small note-book, and has a system of rating the plays for his own private inspection, very much as business men are rated in Dunn's or Bradstreet's Commercial Directory. In this private rate-book of plays of Mr. Wilder's, he has confessed that "The Chaperons," Isidore Witmark's delightful operatic-comedy which will be seen at the Brainerd opera house Tuesday, Aug. 22, ranks

Sheep Building Minnesota State Fair Grounds.

"A No. 1," which is the best rating that his system calls for.

"SWEET CLOVER."

"Sweet Clover" which highly delighted a large Brainerd audience last year will be at the Brainerd opera house soon.

FIVE UNIONS MAY FORM PACT. Plan to Create a General Strike Fund.

Chicago, Aug. 16.—Instead of breaking away from the International Typographical union and abrogating the agreement by which both organizations contribute to a joint defense fund, as proposed by a faction of the International Stereotypers and Electrotypers' union, now in convention here, it is now planned not only to maintain the present agreement with the International Typographical union, but also to effect a similar pact with three other organizations of the affiliated craft.

These organizations are the pressmen, the bookbinders and the photo-engravers. The five unions are now combined only so far as having a general conference board is concerned, but the new plan, approved by most of the delegates, which is to be taken up by the convention, contemplates a joint defense fund.

Under this condition, if one organization on strike calls out one or all of the others, the expense is met from the general fund, instead of the organization on strike being compelled to pay the expenses of the sister organization called out.

SARATOGA MONEY MAD

Gates and Drake Play Golf at $1,000 a Hole.

CADDIES GROWING PROSPEROUS.

Wall Street Man Idol of the Crowd, but Drake Is the Better Player. When Tired of Golf They Play Tennis at $100 a Point—Whims of Rich Visitors at Summer Resort.

Golf at a thousand dollars a hole, tennis at a hundred dollars a point, poker with no limit and side bets on every street as to the number of the next trolley car that comes along or tomorrow's weather—that is the kind of money madness that has got a death grip on Saratoga, says a special dispatch to the New York Journal.

Plungers like John W. Gates and John A. Drake, not content with gigantic stakes on the races and poker games, made their mornings interesting by playing golf for a thousand dollars a hole. Now and then they switch to tennis at a hundred dollars a point, which runs up into the thousands for a set. And the rest of the crowd follows according to their means.

The flush times in California when men played poker for gold mines, the feverish nights at Monte Carlo, where aristocrats gamble away princely birthrights, are both eclipsed by the money mania that has broken out at Saratoga this season. The craze follows the clock all the way around.

Get up in the morning and go down to the springs, and you will find a couple of millionaires betting each other that the first car to come along will have an odd or even number.

Walk out to the golf links, and you will see John W. Gates and John A. Drake, his substantial shadow, making tracks on the dewy grass and cutting divots out of the fair green with prodigious strokes of brassies and irons.

And every one of those strokes means about a hundred dollars, for when Drake and Gates play they lay a thousand dollars a hole.

If either should get eighteen straight holes the sum of $18,000 would change hands, but as they are tolerably matched it is rare that more than three or four thousand dollars is won or lost. Of the two, Drake plays the better game, but Gates gets a handicap which squares things up.

The caddies on the course are growing prosperous, and as soon as the golf craze spreads to the bookmakers, gamblers and the other elite of the place a job as a caddy will be worth purchasing.

On the tennis courts, which are numerous in the handsome gardens of retired plungers along the elm shaded avenues, tennis is indulged in every morning before begins the resplendent parade to the race track.

Here money changes owners almost as fast as it does at the track, while spectators on the streets pause to make side bets as to the outcome of the particular game they happen to be watching.

If you walk from the United States or the Grand Union hotel down the main street after dinner you will see knots of men grouped around pairs of plungers who are betting on the population of the town, the age of the nearest elm tree, the hour the sun sets, the color of the next horse to round the corner or the name of the conductor that will bring in the next Saratoga special.

And every bet is a big one. Saratoga is not the home of the piker, although that variety of gambler is plentiful about her streets.

Since the death of William C. Whitney, Gates is the most important personage in the village, ranking even higher than Canfield, George Wheelock and other prominent citizens in the summer colony.

When he makes bets, the crowd watch him adoringly as he sits on the rail of the clubhouse and looks over their heads as they gather on the lawn. If he races down to the lake in an automobile before dinner, the crowd that can support automobiles follow after. And even when in pursuit of health and recreation, as well as the ever needful exhilaration of a little stake, he and Drake beat little rubber balls over bunkers on the golf course, there is a big gallery to see and applaud, for the Saratoga crowd knows that Gates is playing for big stakes, and they like to see any kind of gambling where real money is at issue.

Franklin's Bicentennial. It is certainly discreditable that one of the three Americans who would by popular acclaim be pronounced to be the greatest the country has produced should have so little formal recognition, says the Philadelphia Record. The birthday of Washington is practically a national holiday, Lincoln's birthday is a red letter day in many states, but Franklin, the third in this triumvirate of America's greatest, is denied the honor of a public testimonial to his superlative merits. An opportunity is at hand to make good this neglect. On Jan. 17 next will be the bicentennial of Franklin's birth. The day ought to be celebrated in an appropriate manner to the furthest ends of the country. It would be becoming for Philadelphia to take the lead in doing honor to her adopted son.

New Pedagogic Theory. The newest idea in schools for teaching children to read is to make them tap a typewriter. The novelty of the work makes the scholars take the greatest interest in thus learning the rudiments of education.

KISSED BY WITTE.

Peace Envoy Embraced Conductor Because He Spoke French.

"No one could have been more surprised than I was when M. Sergius Witte threw his arms about me and kissed me on the cheek," said Conductor E. P. Therien, who had the distinction of having received this European salutation from Russia's envoy extraordinary to the peace conference a few days ago, says a Boston dispatch to the New York American.

Conductor Therien is himself a European—a Frenchman. As an employee of the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad, he had had charge of the special train which transported the distinguished foreigner from Newport to Boston, after he had been induced to leave the Mayflower and go overland to Portsmouth. While relating the details of the incident recently he said:

"It is the custom in Europe for men to salute each other by kissing, although in this country it appears strange. I must say that I was surprised, but it was all right. It was M. Witte's manner of showing his appreciation for the courtesies extended to him during his first ride on an American railroad.

"All during the run from Newport to Boston the members of the party conversed in French. I am a Frenchman myself and understood all that was said perfectly. In fact, I talked with members of the party during the trip, though not with M. Witte. You can imagine my surprise then, when, upon reaching Boston, the big Russian snatched me full on the cheek.

"I did not know what to do for a moment. The situation embarrassed me. I have been among Americans so long that I have almost forgotten European customs. When I realized, however, the sincerity with which the salutation had been given by the Russian nobleman I felt greatly honored. You see, it all happened in this way:

"When we stopped at Back Bay M. Witte did not follow the other members of the party to the elevator, but strode off in the direction of the engine. When he reached the cab he motioned to Engineer J. E. Magoun and put his hand out for a handshake. Magoun leaned out of his cab and the two men shook hands. The fireman was honored in the same way.

"As M. Witte turned to join his party I touched him on the elbow to direct him to the elevator, and spoke to him in French. It was then that he threw open his arms, and, with a hearty embrace, kissed me on the cheek."

Conductor Therien is very popular on the Newport line. He has a wife, who says she does not care how many men kiss her husband.

PASTORS WHO LIKE WORK.

Building Fences, Cleaning Streets and Carrying Mail at Winsted.

The Rev. Newell M. Calhoun, pastor of the Second Congregational church at Winsted, Conn., and member of the Yale corporation, is building a rustic stone wall in front of Pine Bank, his summer residence on the shores of Highland lake, says a Winsted special to the New York World. His artistic work with the trowel is attracting mason contractors.

The Rev. George Remington, a Baptist clergyman, formerly of Colebrook, is employed by the town raking stones on the highways. The Rev. F. S. Francis of New Hartford, a Methodist clergyman nearly seventy years old, is toiling seven days a week. He carries the mail six days in the week between Collinsville and Torrington and preaches on the seventh.

Sleeve Buys For Girl Swimmers.

One mystery that has been baffling spectators at Bailey's beach in Newport has rested in the fact that many girls who profess they are unable to swim manage to glide through the water in a manner that suggests proficiency in the nautical art, says the New York Press. Apparently they carried no life preservers to keep them from sinking. Now the secret has been revealed. It appears that the surprising skill of the girls is due to a contrivance they carry up their sleeves. The sleeves, which are decidedly puffy, are fitted up with rubber bags, which are blown up before the garment is donned. Thus the wearers are enabled to strike out in supreme confidence that Dory Jones won't drag them down to his locker.

Teapots of Glass.

Glass teapots are coming into favor, says the Detroit News-Tribune. They are made of strong, tempered glass, and are delicately trimmed with bands of silver. Inside the teapot a hollow ball of silver rolls about and, by prompt absorption of the heat of the boiling water, prevents the glass from cracking. The charm of the crystal teapot lies not wholly in its beauty, for there is the additional advantage that the teaknower can see just what quantity she has on hand.

Dresser of Flowers.

Hairdressers for flowers is the latest device in the horticultural realm. Just prior to an exhibition of flowers the artist, or professor, takes in hand such specimens as chrysanthemums, with filament petals, and trims them, cutting them to equal lengths and combing them. He also knows how to coax buds to open, smoothing out the petals and making them resemble flowers that are full blown.

Mark Twain and the Dry Dock.

Hager's Weekly of a recent issue contains a column of entertaining "personal"—lively anecdotes and observations on persons and events in the public eye. In one paragraph is quoted a new witticism of Mark Twain's. Mr. Clemens is quoted as defining a dry dock as "a thirsty physician."

DAVIDSON DISCUSSES BOYCOTT.

Says That It May Result in Serious Consequences.

San Francisco, Aug. 16.—J. W. Davidson, acting consul general at Shanghai, who arrived from the Orient Tuesday, says that the cause of the Chinese boycott is the discourteous treatment which the sons of influential Chinese officials have received at the hands of immigration officials on landing at San Francisco.

Mr. Davidson thought that the fact that orders had already been placed for six months ahead for delivery of American goods would prevent the boycott being successful, but he admitted that a popular anti-foreign feeling might be aroused which would carry the fight beyond control and result in serious consequences.

"The purpose of the boycott," said Mr. Davidson, "has never been to secure the admission of coolies, but to gain a proper treatment of the exempt classes."

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

SHANGHAI THE MAIN POINT.

Only Place Where Boycott Has Assumed a Serious Aspect.

Washington, Aug. 16.—Dispatches received at the state department Tuesday from China show that Shanghai is the only place where the boycott against American goods has assumed anything like a serious aspect. At Canton the movement has made some headway, but at other points it has not been successful. This information was supplied in response to instructions sent some days ago to Minister Rockhill and the consular officers in China to keep the state department advised as to the progress of the boycott. One dispatch on this subject received Tuesday was not made public at the state department but sent to the president at Oyster Bay.
